

Nelson Hewitt, M.A.

Email: nohewitt@columbus.gov

Nelson O. Hewitt lives in Columbus, OH, a diverse Mid-Western city. He is a trainer and organizational development consultant. He holds a master's degree in Clinical Psychology, as well as a general psychology Baccalaureate. He does group facilitation, as well as organizational development on the topic of cultural diversity. He owned a diversity consulting company for 15 years.

Mr. Hewitt also currently staffs the City of Columbus Community Relations Commission. He investigates civil rights discrimination cases in employment, public accommodation and housing for the City of Columbus. He also coordinates some of the City's Rev. Dr. Martin L. King Jr. annual celebration.

Mr. Hewitt is an ordained Christian minister. He was born in Louisville, Kentucky, and was raised and baptized in the Southern Baptist tradition. He went on to graduate from the University of Louisville with a B. A. degree in Psychology, after first completing two years at the Kentucky Southern Baptist College.

Mr. Hewitt went on to complete a Master's degree in Clinical Psychology from the University of Cincinnati. He worked as a therapist with individuals, couples and groups. He served as a Christian counselor for the Life Way Christian Counseling Center in Sharonville, Ohio (Cincinnati), combining the theological with the psychological.

Mr. Hewitt resides in Columbus with his wonderful wife Michelle, his daughter Maya, granddaughters Jayla and Jayden. He has six children all adults, and seven grandchildren.

