

Ohio Hispanic Legislative Day 2014

“Hispanics in Ohio, an Emerging Engine For the Future”

Wednesday, December 3rd 2014 at The Ohio Statehouse “Atrium”

Dan Ramos was first elected State Representative in 2010, and is now serving his second term in office. A Lorain native of Puerto Rican descent, Ramos is a graduate of Lorain Admiral King High School and The Ohio State University. Prior to elected office, Ramos began his legislative service as a Legislative Aide to then Representative Joseph F. Koziura (D-Lorain), and later worked as a Senior Policy and Budget Analyst under Minority Leader Beatty and Speaker Budish. In addition to his work in the Ohio House of Representatives, Ramos has also been a caseworker at the Lorain County Department of Job & Family Services.

Rick Perales was elected to his first term in the Ohio House of Representatives in November, and proudly serves his constituents in Ohio’s 73rd District, which includes which includes Bath Township, Beavercreek, Bellbrook, Centerville, Clifton Village, Fairborn, Huber Heights, Kettering, Miami Township, Sugarcreek Township and Yellow Springs Village. Representative Perales has a Bachelor of Science from Auburn University and a Master of Science from Troy State University. He served in the Air Force for 15 years, prior to serving for a decade as mayor of Beavercreek and Greene County Commissioner.
