

OHIO LATINO EDUCATION SUMMIT
INSPIRING
RESILIENCE
EQUITY, PARTNERSHIPS, AND QUALITY SCHOOLS

College of Education,
Health and
Human Services

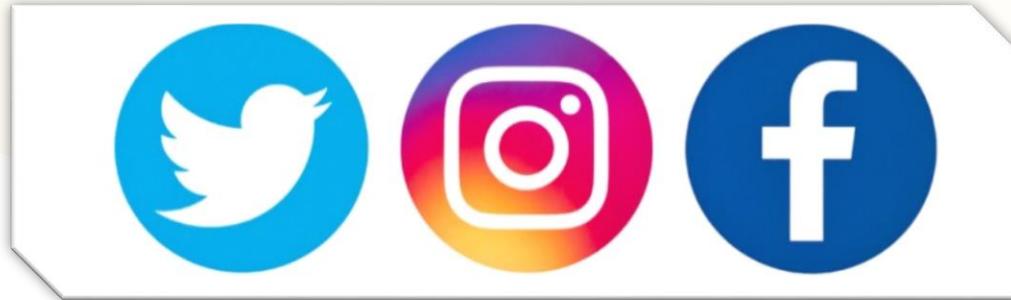

Latino Affairs
Commission

Department
of Education

FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL MEDIA:

#HolaKSU

¡Bienvenidos!

Dr. Cassandra Storlie

Associate Professor of Counselor Education & Supervision at Kent State University

Mr. Daniel Diaz Nilsson

Director of the Office of Diversity, Outreach and Development at Kent State University

2019 OHIO LATINO EDUCATION SUMMIT AGENDA

Kent State University Student Center, located at 1075 Risman Drive Kent, Ohio 44240

Time	Topic	Room Number
9:00 a.m.	Welcome	Room Number
9:15-10:00 a.m.	Plenary 1: Inspiring Hope – The Future of Education for Latinx Communities Germaine Peña, Manager of Post-Secondary Initiatives at Esperanza, Inc. Yasin Cuevas, Assistant Director of Programs at Esperanza, Inc.	Ballroom
10:15-11:45 a.m.	Breakout Block 1
	Session 1: Building Partnerships – Biliteracy and Heritage Learners Biliteracy as Investment in the Future – Dr. Glenn Martinez	319
	Session 2: Inspiring Readiness to Learn – Dealing with Trauma and Mental Health The Impact of Collective Trauma on Youth – Kim Kehl, Dr. Cassie Storlie, Dr. Evelyn Rivera, and Marsha Mitchell-Blanks	317
	Session 3: ReSilience and Equity in STEAM Dr. Sarah Rilling, Dr. Karl W. Kosko, Judy Benjamin, and Jason Gearin	309
	Session 4: Inspiring Latinx Teachers for Tomorrow’s Classrooms Teacher Diversity through Partnership – Dr. Linda F. Robertson and Dr. Katharine Delavan	313
	Session 5: Inspiring Leadership Through Co-Curricular Activity & Career Technical Education Valientes y Fuertes: Empowering Girls to a Brighter Future – Taylor Burciaga and Yahaira Rose	316
	Session 6: Inspiring Policy Change for a Better Future Your Voice Matters: Understanding Government – Carly McCain	314
	Session 7: Inspiring Policy Change for a Better Future Dreamers and Allies: Advancing Equity and Access for DACA and Undocumented Students – SCOPE Club	315
	Session 8: Inspiring Strategies to Promote Inclusive School Communities Caring Isn’t Enough: Building Skills for Behavior and Culture in K-12 and H.E. Classrooms – Dr. Nathan A. Stevenson	318
12:00-1:45 p.m.	La Cumbre Award Luncheon	Ballroom
12:45-1:30 p.m.	Keynote Speaker Dr. Mary Jean Gallagher	Ballroom

Time	Topic	Room Number
1:45-2:45 p.m.	Breakout Block 2
	Session 1: Inspiring Strategies to Promote Inclusive School Communities Promoting Culturally Inclusive Community-Based Practices for Latinx Students in K-12 – KSU Graduate Students	313
	Session 2: Inspiring Readiness to Learn – Dealing with Trauma & Mental Health Supporting Our Youth’s Mental Well-Being – Dr. Karla Anhalt and Dr. Jennifer Walton-Fisette	317
	Session 3: ReSilience and Equity in STEAM Full STEAM Ahead! Leveraging STEAM to Promote Resilience and Equity in K-12 Environments – Dr. Robin Vande Zande and Dr. Bridget Mulvey	309
	Session 4: Inspiring Latinx Teachers for Tomorrow’s Classrooms Diversifying the Teaching Profession in Ohio – Dr. Jessica Mercerhill and Dr. Cheryl Krohn	315
	Session 5: Inspiring Leadership Through Co-Curricular Activity and Career & Technical Education- The Experience of Career & Technical Education in Schools with High Number of Second Language Learners – Cathy Nicholson	318
3:00-4:00 p.m.	Session 6: Inspiring Policy Change for a Better Future Continuing the Conversation – Nadine Grimm and Dr. Mary Jean Gallagher	316
	Session 7: Multinational Non-Spanish/Speaking Learners and Influences on K-12 Education Daniel Diaz Nilsson, Allyssa Torres, and Dr. Joshua Englehart	314
3:00-4:00 p.m.	Session 8: Inspiring Strategies to Promote Inclusive School Communities The Latino Faculty Association: A Crucial Partner for Latino College and HS Students – Dr. Mauricio Espinoza	319
	Plenary 2: Strengthening Our Community Through Critical Engagement Facilitator: Daniel Diaz Nilsson Dr. Elena Foulis, Coordinator of Service-Learning and Heritage Language, Senior Lecturer at the OSU, Commissioner at the Ohio Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs Victor Leandry, Executive Director of El Centro de Servicios Sociales, Inc.	Ballroom

Dr. James Hannon

Dean of the College of Education, Health and Human Services at Kent State University

Dr. Todd Diacon

Kent State University's 13th President

Dr. Elena Foulis

Coordinator of Service-Learning and Heritage Language and Senior Lecturer at the Ohio State University & Commissioner at the Ohio Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs

Lilleana Cavanaugh, MBA, CPM

Executive Director of the Ohio Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs

Plenary 1: Inspiring Hope— The Future of Education for Latinx Communities

Germaine Peña

Manager of Post-Secondary Initiatives at Esperanza, Inc.

Yasin Cuevas

Assistant Director of Programs at Esperanza, Inc.

2019 OHIO LATINO EDUCATION SUMMIT AGENDA

Kent State University Student Center, located at 1075 Risman Drive Kent, Ohio 44240

Breakout Block 1

10:15-11:45 AM

See you back in the Ballroom at 12 PM
for lunch!

9:00 a.m.	Welcome	Room Number
9:15-10:00 a.m.	Plenary 1: Inspiring Hope – The Future of Education for Latinx Communities Germaine Peña, Manager of Post-Secondary Initiatives at Esperanza, Inc. Yasin Cuevas, Assistant Director of Programs at Esperanza, Inc.	Ballroom
	Breakout Block 1
	Session 1: Building Partnerships – Biliteracy and Heritage Learners Biliteracy as Investment in the Future – Dr. Glenn Martinez	319
	Session 2: Inspiring Readiness to Learn – Dealing with Trauma and Mental Health The Impact of Collective Trauma on Youth – Kim Kehl, Dr. Cassie Storlie, Dr. Evelyn Rivera, and Marsha Mitchell-Blanks	317
	Session 3: ReSilience and Equity in STEAM Dr. Sarah Rilling, Dr. Karl W. Kosko, Judy Benjamin, and Jason Gearin	309
10:15-11:45 a.m.	Session 4: Inspiring Latinx Teachers for Tomorrow's Classrooms Teacher Diversity through Partnership – Dr. Linda F. Robertson and Dr. Katharine Delavan	313
	Session 5: Inspiring Leadership Through Co-Curricular Activity & Career Technical Education Valientes y Fuertes: Empowering Girls to a Brighter Future – Taylor Burciaga and Yahaira Rose	316
	Session 6: Inspiring Policy Change for a Better Future Your Voice Matters: Understanding Government – Carly McCain	314
	Session 7: Inspiring Policy Change for a Better Future Dreamers and Allies: Advancing Equity and Access for DACA and Undocumented Students – SCOPE Club	315
	Session 8: Inspiring Strategies to Promote Inclusive School Communities Caring Isn't Enough: Building Skills for Behavior and Culture in K-12 and H.E. Classrooms – Dr. Nathan A. Stevenson	318
12:00-1:45 p.m.	La Cumbre Award Luncheon	Ballroom
12:45-1:30 p.m.	Keynote Speaker Dr. Mary Jean Gallagher	Ballroom

In Ohio, each child is challenged, prepared and empowered.

Ohio's Hispanic student population increased by 113 percent in the last 10 years.

In Ohio, each child is challenged, prepared and empowered.

Meet the needs of all students with Ohio's Culturally Responsive Practices program!

In Ohio, each child is challenged, prepared and empowered.

Learn more about Culturally Responsive Practice!

Scan the QR Code

Visit OhioHCRC.org/crp

Mr. Paolo DeMaria

Ohio's Superintendent of Public Instruction

Premio La Cumbre

The "Premio La Cumbre" is an award established by the Ohio Latino Education Summit to recognize Ohio Latinos that have inspired the Latinos in Ohio in the realm of education. It is an award that acknowledges the recipient's role and leadership in breaking down barriers and creating opportunities to empower Hispanic Ohioans.

Pastor Luis Vizcarrondo Jr.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Mary Jean Gallagher

Education Advisor to the Department of Education for the state of Victoria, Australia

Breakout Block 2

1:45-2:45 PM

See you back in the Ballroom at 3 PM!

Breakout Block 2		Room Number
1:45-2:45 p.m.	Session 1: Inspiring Strategies to Promote Inclusive School Communities Promoting Culturally Inclusive Community-Based Practices for Latinx Students in K-12 – KSU Graduate Students	313
	Session 2: Inspiring Readiness to Learn – Dealing with Trauma & Mental Health Supporting Our Youth’s Mental Well-Being – Dr. Karla Anhalt and Dr. Jennifer Walton-Fisette	317
	Session 3: ReSilience and Equity in STEAM Full STEAM Ahead! Leveraging STEAM to Promote Resilience and Equity in K-12 Environments – Dr. Robin Vande Zande and Dr. Bridget Mulvey	309
	Session 4: Inspiring Latinx Teachers for Tomorrow’s Classrooms Diversifying the Teaching Profession in Ohio – Dr. Jessica Mercerhill and Dr. Cheryl Krohn	315
	Session 5: Inspiring Leadership Through Co-Curricular Activity and Career & Technical Education- The Experience of Career & Technical Education in Schools with High Number of Second Language Learners – Cathy Nicholson	318
	Session 6: Inspiring Policy Change for a Better Future Continuing the Conversation – Nadine Grimm and Dr. Mary Jean Gallagher	316
3:00-4:00 p.m.	Session 7: Multinational Non-Spanish/Speaking Learners and Influences on K-12 Education Daniel Diaz Nilsson, Allyssa Torres, and Dr. Joshua Englehart	314
	Session 8: Inspiring Strategies to Promote Inclusive School Communities The Latino Faculty Association: A Crucial Partner for Latino College and HS Students – Dr. Mauricio Espinoza	319
	Plenary 2: Strengthening Our Community Through Critical Engagement Facilitator: Daniel Diaz Nilsson Dr. Elena Foulis, Coordinator of Service-Learning and Heritage Language, Senior Lecturer at the OSU, Commissioner at the Ohio Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs Victor Leandry, Executive Director of El Centro de Servicios Sociales, Inc.	Ballroom

Plenary 2: Strengthening Our Community Through Critical Engagement

Dr. Elena Foulis

Coordinator of Service-Learning and Heritage Language and Senior Lecturer at the Ohio State University & Commissioner at the Ohio Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs

Victory Leandry

Executive Director of El Centro de Servicios Sociales, Inc.

Thank You!

College of Education,
Health and
Human Services

Latino Affairs
Commission

Department of Education