

Mari Galindo-DaSilva, a native of Mexico City, came to Cleveland, Ohio, as a young child with her family in 1968. As a result of her migration experience and growing up among multicultural and multilingual family, neighbors, and classmates she has devoted herself to educating Hispanics and non-Hispanics about the beauty and diversity of the Hispanic culture.

Mari serves as the Language Access and Communication Services Coordinator at The MetroHealth System. Her background includes being the Executive Director of the Hispanic Cultural Center, Public Relations Director for family owned Luchita's Restaurants and Multicultural and Minority Liaison at McDonald & Co., Investments. Active in the community, Mari serves the following organizations: Global Cleveland, LULAC, Amigas Unidas at The MetroHealth System & Cleveland Museum of Art International Council.
